RECORD CHECK

Effective January 1, 2014, an applicant for professional engineer licensure in Texas must submit a legible set of fingerprints to the Texas Department of Public Safety (TXDPS) for the purpose of obtaining criminal history record information from the TXDPS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. See more information at <https://engineers.texas.gov/recordcheck.html>.

CRIMINAL HISTORY

1. Have you ever been convicted, placed on probation, granted deferred adjudication or any type of pre-trial diversion for a felony or misdemeanor, or had a military court martial, for any incident other than a citation for a traffic violation? No Yes

(An affirmative answer MUST be explained on the Criminal History Form. Provide copies of court documents.)

- Please report any incident that you have ever had other than a simple traffic violation. This includes any misdemeanor or felony convictions, probation, placement on deferred adjudication, dismissal after completion of court requirements, pre-trial diversion, or any other type of judgment. This applies to any incidents in any state, federal, or other jurisdiction, including a military court martial.
- The Texas Board of Professional Engineers will review the results of a thorough FBI criminal history record check to determine if you have ever had a criminal history. You will need to report all incidents.
- Please be advised that offenses such as driving while intoxicated, driving while ability impaired, driving under the influence, driving under the influence of alcohol, operating while intoxicated, and similar kinds of incidents are not considered to be traffic violations, and must be reported. Please be sure to report all such incidents.
- Please be aware that the mere dismissal of an incident is not the same as having the case expunged. You will need to report all incidents, even if they have been dismissed, unless you have had your case(s) formally expunged by the court.
- Failure to report any incidents will result in a significant delay of your application. Failure to report any incidents may result in the requirement for you to make a personal appearance before the Licensing Committee of the Board. Failure to report any incidents may result in the denial of your application for licensure in Texas and forfeiture of the application fee.

2. Has the Texas Board of Professional Engineers ever taken disciplinary or administrative action against you? No Yes

3. Has any other state's engineering licensing board ever taken disciplinary or administrative action against you? No Yes
